

CONFERENCE CONTENT

The 2019 FARB Regulatory Law Seminar (RLS) will bring together leading experts and attorneys from across the country to discuss the latest trends in the licensing of professionals. This first-class educational program delivers the tools and information needed to ensure the efficient and effective operation of state regulatory boards. Designed for Assistant Attorneys General and board attorneys, the RLS will cover topics related to administrative law and representing regulatory boards. The RLS will kick off with the popular two-hour optional Thursday evening Professional Responsibility (Ethics) course. The RLS is always interactive and will provide an unparalleled opportunity to network with members of the regulatory community across jurisdictions and professions. The conference curriculum presents current Regulatory News, relevant Top Regulatory Cases, and blends various videos and media into an engaging interactive learning experience.

RETURN TO OUR REGULAR SCHEDULE

The 2019 FARB Regulatory Law Seminar will span a full-day Friday, with two half-days on Saturday and Sunday. The optional two-hour Professional Responsibility (Ethics) course will kick off the seminar Thursday.

ETHICS TRAINING

This interactive session titled "Ethics in an Administrative Law Setting" is designed as a refresher on legal ethics for regulatory attorneys and approval is being sought for Professional Responsibility (Ethics) CLE credits. This course includes an analysis of the Rules of Professional Conduct as they relate to the government attorney or the attorney who represents a government agency. The content also focuses on court cases involving the Rules of Professional Conduct as they relate to the duties of attorneys to the judicial system, the public, clients, and other attorneys.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

FARB will seek approval for credits through the Illinois Minimum Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) for these courses. We anticipate attendees will earn up to 12 CLE credit hours for the RLS course. Attendees may earn an additional 2 hours of Professional Responsibility (Ethics) CLE credit if attending the optional ethics course. Other professions may be able to use FARB courses as continuing education. Attendees must complete required MCLE reporting information, including attendance tracking and evaluations, and request CLE certificates in a timely manner. Attendees must submit required information to their appropriate jurisdictions as necessary.

MEETING MATERIALS

Prior to the conference, all attendees will receive an email with instructions on how to access the meeting materials online to download or print in advance. The meeting website with the materials will be accessible during the conference via Wi-Fi.

FEES

Registration fee for the Thursday Professional Responsibility (Ethics) session is $250.00 and includes beverages and light snacks. Registration fee for the RLS is $825.00 for members and $925.00 for non-members and includes breakfast, lunch, and reception on Friday, and breakfast on Saturday and Sunday.

Payment by credit card can be done securely online or by phone. If paying by check, please forward as soon as possible.

FARB MISSION

To advance excellence in regulation of the professions in the interest of public protection.

In keeping with its mission statement, FARB provides a forum for interaction among individuals and agencies involved in regulatory law and the licensing of professionals with the goal of protecting the public. Member associations, individuals, and other organizations that participate in FARB and seek to strengthen and uphold the standards of licensed professionals are invited to attend. We look forward to seeing you!
